JD/MBA PROGRAM

MBA Info Sessions at SDSU

As you may know, Thomas Jefferson School of Law offers a concurrent MBA degree program in conjunction with San Diego State University. This dual degree is very beneficial for law students pursuing many different practice areas including corporate law (corporate finance, project finance, mergers & acquisitions etc.), sports law (athletic directors, agents, management in sports organizations, etc.) and many other traditional and non-traditional legal careers.

If you are interested in learning more, SDSU is offering the following informational sessions on their campus:

Tuesday, Aug. 9, 2011
6:00 - 8:00 p.m. (5:30 p.m. check-in)
Location: Student Services SS 1500 (at SDSU)

Or

Saturday, Aug. 20, 2011
10:00 a.m. - 12:00 pm (9:30 a.m. check-in)
Location: Student Services SS 1500 (at SDSU)

Additional information and directions to SDSU are available at: <http://www-ohan.sdsu.edu/~cba/grad/info-session.html>

Applications are now being accepted for admission to SDSU’s Spring 2012 entering MBA class. The deadline to apply is November 1. If you have questions about the concurrent degree program, please contact Beverly Bracker, Director of Career Services, at bbracker@tjssl.edu.

Non-Discrimination Policy

Thomas Jefferson School of Law is committed to a policy of non-discrimination both in educational and employment opportunities. The school’s policy is to prohibit discrimination based on race, color, national origin, religion, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression or age. An exception to our policy of non-discrimination is granted to representatives of the U.S. Department of Defense who discriminate on a basis not permitted by our policy. This exception is made in order to avoid the loss of federal funds that would otherwise be imposed by the 1996 Solomon Amendment.
