New “Pay as You Earn” Student Loan Repayment Program!

The U.S. Department of Education recently announced a new student loan repayment plan option for borrowers who took out their first federal loan any time after September 30, 2007 and who also received a federal loan after September 30, 2011. Beginning December 21st, such borrowers can enroll in the “Pay as You Earn” repayment program, which caps monthly student loan payments at 10% of a borrower’s discretionary income and provides forgiveness for borrowers still repaying their loans after 20 years.

For information about the Pay As You Earn repayment plan, borrowers should contact the Federal Student Aid Information Center (FSAIC) at 1-800-4FEDAID (1-800-433-3243). Borrowers may also want to read more about this repayment plan, as well as other options on Equal Justice Works’ blog, the Student Loan Ranger, located at www.usnews.com/education/blogs/student-loan-ranger.

2Ls: Legal Internship with U.S. Department of Health and Human Services

The Office for Civil Rights (OCR) of the Civil Rights Division (CRD) of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services currently seeks legal interns for Summer 2013 to assist with its enforcement and outreach efforts. OCR promotes and ensures that people have equal access to and opportunity to participate in certain health care and human services programs without facing unlawful discrimination. CRD carries out this mission by enforcing Federal laws and regulations that prohibit discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, disability, age and, in certain circumstances, sex and religion, in programs and activities that receive financial assistance from HHS. CRD also enforces Federal laws that prohibit discrimination. For more information about this agency, go to: www.hhs.gov.

To Apply:

Interested applicants should submit a cover letter, resume, and writing sample (5-10 pages) via e-mail to Ms. Peggy Schmidt at Peggy.Schmidt@hhs.gov. Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis, so interested applicants should apply ASAP.

3Ls/Recent Grads: Immigration Fellowship in New York

The Cardozo School of Law's Kathryn O. Greenberg Immigration Justice Clinic is seeking two clinical fellows to start in Fall 2013. The Immigration Justice Clinic is an in-house year-long intensive clinic in which students represent immigrants in a variety of matters but primarily in deportation proceedings in the immigration courts and federal courts. The clinic's docket focuses on immigrants facing deportation because of encounters with the criminal justice system and more generally on immigration enforcement issues. This position is ideal for candidates interested in the substantive areas of immigration or criminal law and/or candidates interested in careers in clinical teaching. This is a one-year position with a potential one year extension.

To Apply:

Applicants should submit a cover letter, resume and a list of at least three references to: Ms. Zsuzsanna Toth at toth@yu.edu. Cover letter should be addressed to Ms. Zsuzsanna Toth, 55 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY 10003-4391. Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis until January 1, 2013, so interested applicants should apply ASAP.

3Ls/Recent Grads: Fellowship in Reproductive Health Law

The National Women's Law Center, located in Washington, D.C., is seeking a recent law school graduate, judicial clerk, or third-year law student to work on major reproductive rights policy initiatives affecting women as a Reproductive Health Law Fellow. The selected fellow will work on projects related to all aspects of the Center's reproductive rights program area, including efforts to increase and protect access to contraception and expanding access for low-income women through Medicaid and private insurance coverage, addressing barriers to reproductive health care access, and protecting a woman's right to safe, legal abortion. Please note this is a two-year fellowship beginning in September 2013.

To Apply:

Applicants should submit via e-mail a cover letter, resume, transcript and list of three references with current contact information to humanresources@nwlc.org and include position title in the subject line. Cover letter should be addressed to Human Resources Department, National Women's Law Center, 11 Dupont Circle NW Suite 800, Washington, DC 20036. Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis until January 1, 2013, so interested applicants should apply ASAP.
