1Ls/2Ls: Summer Internship with Casa Cornelia Law Center

Casa Cornelia Law Center, located in San Diego, CA, provides quality pro bono legal representation and assistance to detained and non-detained children in deportation proceedings. The Children's Program Intern will provide informational materials for detained children, follow up communications with children and families, assistance with the preparation and filing of motions with the Executive Office for Immigration Review, and other support tasks. Interns should be available a minimum of 12 hours per week for at least 16 consecutive weeks.

To Apply:

Submit a cover letter and resume to Ms. Elizabeth Lopez at ELopez@CasaCornelia.org. For more information about this organization, go to: www.CasaCornelia.org.

1Ls/2Ls: Summer Internship with Safe California Campaign—LA

The SAFE California Act is a statewide ballot initiative to replace California's death penalty with life without parole. The initiative has qualified for the November ballot and the Los Angeles campaign team is seeking interns to assist campaign staff. This position is ideal for those interested in gaining experience in elections and political campaigns. Applicants must show a commitment to replacing the death penalty in California. Fluency in Spanish is also desired, but not required. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis, so interested applicants should apply ASAP.

To Apply:

Submit a cover letter and resume to Mr. Tommy Watts via e-mail at tommy@safecalifornia.org. For more information about this organization, go to: www.safecalifornia.org.

3Ls: Get a Head Start on your Equal Justice Works Fellowship Application!

Each year, Equal Justice Works selects 40-50 qualified and passionate lawyers who have developed innovative legal projects to serve communities in need of legal assistance for two-year fellowships. During their two year tenure, fellows receive a competitive salary, generous loan repayment assistance, connections to prominent sponsors, and training opportunities. The online application is available July 6, 2012, but now is the time to learn more about this opportunity, to develop a project and to connect with an organization sponsor.

To Apply:

For more information about this fellowship, to sign up for an application overview webinar, and for other helpful resources, go to: <http://equaljusticeworks.org/post-grad/equal-justice-works-fellowships>.

3Ls: Skadden Fellowship Application is now OPEN!

Established in 1988, the Skadden Fellowship Program has been described as "a legal Peace Corps" by The Los Angeles Times. Each year, this fellowship provides about 26 fellows the opportunity to partner with a nonprofit organization of their choosing and to focus on a specific project the fellow has developed in partnership with his/her host organization. The fellowship is two years in duration. The application cycle for the 2013-2015 fellowship program is now open for 2013 law school graduates. Application deadline is October 1, 2012. Interested applicants are strongly encouraged to begin the application process ASAP, as it involves partnership with a host organization, an innovative and finely developed project, and extensive application materials.

To Apply:

For more information about this fellowship opportunity and full application instructions, go to: www.skaddenfellowships.org. Please also set up an appointment with Ms. Maysa Eissa, Esq., Associate Director of Career Services, early in the process to go over application requirements and to discuss your proposed project.

3Ls/Recent Grads: Fellowship Opportunity with ACLU of Northern California

The American Civil Liberties Union of Northern California (ACLU-NC) seeks applicants for a two-year Racial Justice Project Fellowship to begin September 2012. Third year law students and recent law graduates with up to three years experience are eligible to apply. Under the supervision of the Racial Justice Project Director, the Fellow will help lead efforts focused on litigation, legislative and policy advocacy, media and grassroots public education, community organizing, public speaking, program development and other campaign-based activities. Applications are accepted until position is filled so interested applicants should apply ASAP.

To Apply:

Applicants should mail a cover letter and resume to: Human Resources Department, ACLU of Northern California, 39 Drumm Street, San Francisco, CA 94111, or via e-mail to: HR-Admin@aclunc.org. For more information about this fellowship opportunity and full application instructions, go to: www.aclu.org, then "About Us", then "Careers."
