3Ls: Get a Head Start on your Equal Justice Works Fellowship Application!

Each year, Equal Justice Works selects 40-50 qualified and passionate lawyers who have developed innovative legal projects to serve communities in need of legal assistance for two-year fellowships. During their two year tenure, fellows receive a competitive salary, generous loan repayment assistance, connections to prominent sponsors, and training opportunities. The online application is available July 6, 2012, but now is the time to learn more about this opportunity, to develop a project and to connect with an organization sponsor.

To Apply:

For more information about this fellowship, to sign up for an application overview webinar, and for other helpful resources, go to: <http://equaljusticeworks.org/post-grad/equal-justice-works-fellowships>.

3Ls: Skadden Fellowship Application is now OPEN!

Established in 1988, the Skadden Fellowship Program has been described as "a legal Peace Corps" by The Los Angeles Times. Each year, this fellowship provides about 26 fellows the opportunity to partner with a nonprofit organization of their choosing and to focus on a specific project the fellow has developed in partnership with his/her host organization. The fellowship is two years in duration. The application cycle for the 2013-2015 fellowship program is now open for 2013 law school graduates. Application deadline is October 1, 2012. Interested applicants are strongly encouraged to begin the application process ASAP, as it involves partnership with a host organization, an innovative and finely developed project, and extensive application materials.

To Apply:

For more information about this fellowship opportunity and full application instructions, go to: www.skaddenfellowships.org. Please also set up an appointment with Ms. Maysa Eissa, Esq., Associate Director of Career Services, early in the process to go over application requirements and to discuss your proposed project.

3Ls: Graduate Law Clerk Program with San Diego County District Attorney's Office

The Graduate Law Clerk Program of the San Diego District Attorney's Office provides law school graduates the opportunity to work for a prosecutor's office while awaiting California Bar results. Interested applicants apply at the beginning of their 3L year for a position to start in August 2013. Graduate Law Clerks are assigned to all divisions of the Office within San Diego County. They will be assigned to answer defense motions, complete legal research and write reports, and assist attorneys in trial preparation, and if certified, to conduct felony preliminary hearings and misdemeanor jury trials under the supervision of Deputy District Attorneys. Please note applicants should have a 3.0 GPA and a commitment to take the July 2013 Bar Exam. Application deadline is October 11, 2012.

To Apply:

Submit a cover letter, resume, writing sample (not to exceed three pages), two letters of recommendation, and transcript. If applicant has previously worked for the San Diego County District Attorney's Office, please also submit the names of any supervisors who can speak to applicant's work. Please submit the materials as a single pdf. via e-mail to recruiting@sdcda.org. For more information about this office and this opportunity, go to: www.sdcda.org/office/diversity/district-attorney-jobs.html.
