“Getting a Grip on Student Loans” with Heather Jarvis

Are you concerned about your student loan debt? Are you wondering how you can repay your loans while working in public interest?

Heather Jarvis, the nation's leading expert on student loan repayment, is presenting at TJSL on Monday, March 26th at 11:30 am in Room 323. This presentation will cover the difference between the types of loans you may have, will help you evaluate income-based repayment and other repayment options, and will also introduce you to simple steps to help you qualify for public service loan forgiveness. RSVP in the Symplixity Events tab. Contact Ms. Maysa Eissa, Esq. at meissa@tjssl.edu with any questions.

1Ls/2Ls: Summer Internship with Community Legal Services in East Palo Alto (CLSEPA)

CLESPA provides legal assistance to low-income individuals and families in East Palo Alto and the surrounding community. The organization's Anti-Predatory Lending and Foreclosure Prevention Program is seeking summer interns to conduct initial client interviews, assist with demand letters and administrative complaints and research and draft memos on legal issues related to predatory lending and loan servicer abuses. Application deadline is May 12, 2012.

To Apply
